

Common Brown Robber Fly

Body Length: 25 mm

Active period of Adults: Spring & Summer

Habitat: Woodlands, Grasslands, botanical gardens

Status: Common in NE Victoria

Distribution: Not sure on other states in Australia

Additional Notes: Robber flies are a large family in Diptera, also called "Assassin flies" with over 600 species in Australia.

If you see one of these Flies, leave them alone as they are very good Beneficial Predators.