

Fiddler Beetle

Active period of Adults: Spring and Summer

Habitat: Botanical gardens, woodlands, eucalypt forests

Status: common in heath, woodlands of South Eastern Australia

Additional notes: If you see one of these in your garden (PLEASE DON'T KILL IT). The adults are Important Pollinators, which you will find them around a variety of numerous shrubs, wattles etc.

DECEMBER 2008